Code of Conduct for Certified Instructor/Trainers and Associate Instructors

Name

Associate Instructor

Certified Instructor/Trainer

As a USDF Certified Instructor/Trainer or Associate Instructor, and member in good standing of the United States Dressage Federation (USDF), I acknowledge my obligation to uphold the highest standards of horsemanship both at home and when in the public eye.

As a horseman, I place my rider's safety and horse's welfare above all else.

I will support the rules and policies of USDF, USEF and when applicable the FEI.

As a USDF Certified Instructor/Trainer or Associate Instructor, I acknowledge the importance of continuing my own education in order that I may pass this knowledge to my students.

I understand that as a USDF member and USDF Certified Instructor/Trainer or Associate Instructor, I serve as a representative of my sport, the USDF, and the USDF Instructor Certification Program. As a USDF Certified Instructor/Trainer or Associate Instructor, I will serve as a positive example through my conduct, dress, and behavior by maintaining a professional demeanor.

I further understand that any USDF member suspended by USEF will be considered a USDF member not in good standing during the period of suspension. During this period, such person will be ineligible to participate in USDF programs, including having his/her name removed from the list of Associate Instructors, Certified Instructors, Instructor Workshop Faculty, and Instructor Certification Examiners.

I acknowledge my membership in this professional community and my responsibility to demonstrate respect for my fellow professionals at all times.
